All Hands-on Deck: Palm Beach County Proclaims March 30 "Signature Gives Back Volunteer Day"

(Boca Raton, FL) — Signature Gives Back, Inc. (SGB), the philanthropic arm of The Signature Real Estate Companies (Signature), is finalizing its 2nd Annual SGB Volunteer Day for March 30, 2023, to assist the needs of the communities Signature serves. Signature will close its offices to allow its 1,500+ real estate professionals, their family and friends, and the general public to volunteer alongside. Palm Beach County Commissioners have written their annual "Signature Gives Back Volunteer Day in Palm Beach County" proclamation.

SGB Vice Presidents and Co-Chairs, Wendy Pressner and Jack Jaiven, have been coordinating with 20 volunteer captains and hundreds of volunteers to cover 14 diverse volunteer spots in Palm Beach and Broward counties. This year SGB has chosen sister charities: Justin Bartlett Animal Rescue, Habitat for Humanity, Showering Love, Community Greening, Boca Helping Hands, SOS Children's Village, Fuller Center, Grand Villa Memory Care, Feeding South Florida, and The Soup Kitchen Boynton Beach.

Volunteers will also participate in a beach beautification project, blood donations, and delivery of new pajamas and children's storybooks to benefit youth served by the Pajama Program. Blood donations through OneBlood will be stationed at The Fifth Avenue Shops on Federal Highway in Boca Raton.

The day will close with a 4 p.m. recognition BBQ at Patch Reef Park, Boca Raton. Palm Beach County Commissioner Marci Woodward will formally recognize all volunteers and recite SGB's Volunteer Day proclamation.
