★MARITZA MEZA

Meza Group Founder
COLDWELL Banker Global
Luxury

A successful real estate career is measured by sales results, and the name Maritza Meza continues to surface at the top of the list. Meza started her real estate career in Lima, Peru, after receiving her bachelor's degree in business management and continued to accelerate her impeccable selling skills in South Florida. As a sales executive for the Related Group's prestigious Las Olas Beach Club, she quickly rose to the top of the class with more than $125 million in personal sales, including selling 11 out of the 12 oceanfront penthouses in record time. This led to her appointment as director of sales for Strada 315 in Fort Lauderdale, Trump International Hotel and Tower in Fort Lauderdale Beach and Da Vinci on The Ocean in Sunny Isles Beach. Meza has dominated the luxury real estate market, selling sought-after waterfront estates and luxury high rises all along the South Florida coast.

★GIORDANNA "GIGI" GIUSTI

Douglas Elliman Pre-Construction Specialist

Giordanna "Gigi" Giusti is one of Fort Lauderdale's top producers in the South Florida luxury real estate market.

Gigi teamed up with her mother, top producer Maritza Meza, working on pre-construction projects, including Jorge Perez's Related Group towers. Later she created "The Meza Group" with brother, Gianpierre Giusti and Maritza, and sold over $1 billion.

Bilingual Gigi targeted the international market and sold $30 million dollars in two years. She received NRT's Society of Excellence, Sterling Society Team and Diamond Society Team awards.

Later joining Douglas Elliman, Gigi had record-breaking sales in Selene Oceanfront Residences, 100 Las Olas, Four Seasons Residences and Auberge Residences & Spa.

Gigi opened Legacy Fit in Fort Lauderdale in 2020 with co-owner, Manning Sumner. Gigi was also presented the 100 Outstanding Women in Broward and Fort Lauderdale's Finest awards.

★GIANPIERRE GIUSTI

Meza Group President
COLDWELL Banker Global
Luxury

Gianpierre Giusti has mastered the luxury market in Fort Lauderdale. Gianpierre started a successful marketing company at 19 years old. As the housing market was on the rise, Gianpierre became a realtor. Gianpierre partnered with his mother Maritza Meza to form their own real estate company in 2007. After much success, Gianpierre decided to join a luxury real estate brokerage. This is when Gianpierre co-founded the Meza Group alongside his sister Gigi Giusti and mother Maritza Meza, and partnered with Coldwell Banker Previews. Since joining Coldwell Banker, the Meza Group has been awarded every year for outstanding sales including NRT'S International Diamond Society in 2015. As president of the Meza Group, Gianpierre focuses on listing and selling high-end waterfront condominiums and is known to dominate the listing market and close record-breaking sales in Ft. Lauderdale's waterfront high rises...touting over a billion dollars in sales.

★BRIAN HERO

Senior Vice President,
Broker at One Sotheby's
International Realty

Brian Hero is recognized among the top 1.49% of more than 1.6 million real-estate professionals nationwide by the 2022 RealTrends America's Best. Hero is consistently ranked as one of the top agents in South Florida and is a multi-year recipient of the Top Producer Circle award at ONE Sotheby's International Realty. He is also a member of the South Florida Master Brokers Forum, and his clients include numerous notable high-net-worth domestic and international buyers and sellers.

What has been the most monumental ROCKSTAR moment of your career thus far?

Receiving this award, of course, is a huge honor. It's the culmination of years of consistent hard work and success in an industry that is fast-paced and very competitive. Last year was a tremendous sales year, and this year is on pace to meet or exceed it.
